

Curran & Connors is Single Biggest Winner in the GDUSA American Web Design Awards™

Ronkonkoma, New York, June 15, 2020—Curran & Connors, Inc. (C&C), a leading producer of corporate reports, digital solutions and corporate branding, was the biggest winner in the Graphic Design USA (GDUSA) American Web Design Awards™ Competition, a business-to-business information source for graphic design professionals. This is an awards competition open to all creative professionals across all types of media. C&C is pleased to share that our team won five awards on behalf of our clients.

“Our 2020 American Web Design Awards™ saw more than 2,000 entries from design firms, ad agencies and corporate design departments representing many of the world’s leading companies, products and brands. A highly selective 10 percent were selected as winners in this annual competition,” said Gordon Kaye, Editor, GDUSA. “Curran & Connors creative team was the single biggest winner with the most awards in total this year. The performance is, in a nutshell, exceptional—but not surprising given Curran & Connors’ consistent and outstanding record of creating strategic, attractive, and impactful graphic design across all media.”

Curran & Connors was honored with 5 GDUSA Awards. Here are the award-winning pieces of work:
